Programme - draft

May 1

14:00-14:30 Registration and Coffee

Session I: "Monitoring and Information Design"

14:30 - 15:30 Alessandro Pavan: "Persuasion in Global Games with Application to Stress Testing"
15:30 - 16:30 Balasz Szentes: "Optimal Monitoring Design"

16:30-17:00 Coffee Break

Session II: "On the Foundations of Decision Theory"

17:00 - 18:00 Kenneth Binmore: "On the Foundations of Decision Theory"

19:00 Dinner at King's College (by invitation only)

---------------------------------------------------

May 2

9:30-10:00 Registration and Coffee

Session III: "Boundedly Rational Learning"

10:00 - 11:00 George Mailath: "The Wisdom of a Confused Crowd: Model-Based Inference"
11:00 - 12:00 Jakub Steiner: "On Second Thoughts, Selective Memory, and Resulting Behavioral Bias"

12:00-12:30 Coffee Break

Session IV: "Economic Growth"

12:30 - 13:30 Larry Blume and Aleksandra Lukina: "Economic Growth in the Short Run"

13:30 - 14:45 Lunch

Session V: "Repeated Coordination and Evolution"

14:45 - 15:45 Hamid Sabourian: "Evolution of Rules, Selection and Mutation: Efficiency and Egalitarianism"
15:45 - 16:45 Kalyan Chatterjee: "Repeated Coordination with Private Learning"

16:45 - 17:15 Coffee Break

Session VI: "Matching in Large Markets"

17:15 - 18:15 Olivier Tercieux: "Top Trading Cycles in Prioritized Matching: An Irrelevance of Priorities in Large Markets"

19:00 Dinner (by invitation only)
May 3

Session VII: "Social and Strategic Interactions in Groups"

10:30 - 11:30 Antonio Cabrales: "Occupational Choice with Endogenous Spillovers"

11:30 - 12:00 Coffee Break

Session VIII: "Institutions and Networks"

12:00 - 13:00 Matt Elliott: "Complexity, Institutions and Endogenous Supply Chain Fragility"

13:00 - 14:30 Lunch