2018 Cambridge-INET Economic Theory Workshop
Chetwynd Room and Keynes Hall, King's College, Cambridge

Programme

May 1

14:00 - 14:30 Registration and Coffee

Session I: "Monitoring and Information Design"
14:30 - 15:30 Alessandro Pavan: "Persuasion in Global Games with Application to Stress Testing"
15:30 - 16:30 Balasz Szentes: "Optimal Monitoring Design"

16:30 - 17:00 Coffee Break

Session II: "On the Foundations of Decision Theory"
17:00 - 18:00 Kenneth Binmore: "On the Foundations of Decision Theory"

19:00 Dinner at King's College (by invitation only)

May 2

9:00 - 9:30 Registration and Coffee

Section III: "Economic Growth"
9:30 - 10:30 Larry Blume and Aleksandra Lukina: "Economic Growth in the Short Run"

10:30 - 11:00 Coffee Break

Session IV: "Boundedly Rational Learning"
11:00 - 12:00 George Mailath: "The Wisdom of a Confused Crowd: Model-Based Inference"
12:00 - 13:00 Jakub Steiner: "On Second Thoughts, Selective Memory, and Resulting Behavioral Bias"

13:00 - 14:15 Lunch
Session V: "Repeated Coordination and Evolution"
14:15 - 15:15 Hamid Sabourian: "Evolution of Rules, Selection and Mutation: Efficiency and Egalitarianism"
15:15 - 16:15 Kalyan Chatterjee: "Repeated Coordination with Private Learning"
16:15 - 16:45 Coffee Break

Session VI: "Matching in Large Markets"
16:45 - 17:45 Olivier Tercieux: "Top Trading Cycles in Prioritized Matching: An Irrelevance of Priorities in Large Markets"
18:30 Dinner (by invitation only)

May 3

Session VII: "Institutions and Networks"
9:30 - 10:30 Matt Elliott: "Complexity, Institutions and Endogenous Supply Chain Fragility"
10:30 - 11:00 Coffee Break

Session VIII: "Social and Strategic Interactions in Groups"
11:00 - 12:00 Antonio Cabrales: "Occupational Choice with Endogenous Spillovers"
12:00 - 13:00 Nageeb Ali: "Conventions and Coalitions in Repeated Games"
13:00 - 14:30 Lunch